

December 1, 2019, 6:00pm
@ Scotiabank Arena
Cost: $49/person

Dear Ministry Partners and Friends:

In March 2019, we had over 600 students and leaders come to the Scotiabank Arena to watch a professional NBA regular season game, featuring the Toronto Raptors. The game was lost at the buzzer which made Jeremy Lin's story of how his walk with Christ has impacted his career in the NBA even more compelling (God is there- even in loss). There was energy and excitement not just about basketball, but also about how many invited friends were connecting with their church groups and ultimately with Jesus. God continues to do amazing things in unexpected places!

Centre Court isn't just a discounted Raptors game. It's a first-point-of-contact for your ministry's non-Christian friends. The program has, like other years, a pre-evangelistic focus. It is an event which non-Christians are interested in that also demonstrates Jesus' influence in students and others lives. This year, we have a great team working on bringing you a post-game program where your students can bring their friends and introduce them to Christ in a safe, comfortable atmosphere.

We are very hopeful for great things this year, including having the opportunity to hear the testimony of a player. Please be in prayer with us regarding this.

Along with this package, a promotional poster is available. Given the success of the Raptors, tickets will go fast, so read all the details carefully and be prepared to register your group. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call Alvin (416-620-2946).

We look forward to seeing all of you down at the Scotiabank Arena on December 1st. We want you to know that we are here to serve you and your ministry in any way we can. We look forward to hearing from you about how God will use this event for ministry happening "in the cracks". See you soon.

In Christ's work,
The Centre Court Team

- Registrations will be confirmed based on the time of receipt (either by phone or online).
- Cheques are payable to "CBOQ".
- If your registration is received and tickets are no longer available, your payment will be refunded.
- NOTE: Since this is a pre-evangelism event, we remind you to see this as a ministry opportunity, not as a discounted basketball game.

2. Mail/email in the group contract signed by your church's signing officer by November 24, 2019.

- NOTE: Remember, your church should have their own waiver form for this event (as required by the group contract). Only individuals you've selected to participate in the on-court games will also need the MLSE waiver completed (which will be emailed to you when you register).

3. After we've confirmed your payment, around November 26 we will email you a link via Ticketmaster.

- NOTE: Scotiabank Arena no longer accepts printed tickets; you will have to scan the tickets from your mobile device. One person can hold multiple tickets, i.e. the group leader can scan tickets for anyone in their group without a phone.

WHEN YOU ARRIVE...

- 1) Come down to the Scotiabank Arena and enjoy the game.
  - There are many ways to get to the SBA (bus, car, public transit, etc.)
  - Scotiabank Arena does NOT permit bags to be brought into the venue. The only exceptions are women's purses, drawstring bags and grocery bags.
- 2) At the beginning of the third quarter, please meet Meghan (with a Sharkey jersey) at section 301 to receive your arrival package (which will include wristbands for everyone to wear to be admitted into the post-game program).
- 3) After the game, remain in your seats until the ushers escort you down to courtside.

THINGS YOU NEED TO KNOW!!

Cost

Centre Court this year costs $49/person before November 12, 2019. After November 12, tickets will cost $65 (availability not guaranteed). The price you charge is NOT on the promotional poster. We will invoice you with the appropriate total. However, you set the price for your ministry to include subsidies, transportation costs, etc. For example, if you are renting a bus and it costs $2/person, you can choose to advertise the price as $51/ticket (paying CBOQ $49/ticket). Similarly, if you subsidize the event, you can advertise $20/ticket (still paying CBOQ $49/ticket).

Refunds will only be offered if MLSE offers any reimbursements for the event.

Group Contract

Instead of each individual completing a CBOQ waiver form, each group will submit a group contract. Your church would sign a contract as part of your registration detailing expectations from both your church and CBOQ. (See the contract further in the registration package.)

Child Protection Policy

We require all churches attending to have a current and functioning child protection policy as part of your church's operations.

Group Leaders

We recommend you have at least 1 leader per 10 students (max.) with group leaders needing to be at least 20 years of age. Also, the group leaders are required to have successfully completed the screening as outlined in your church's child protection policy.

Financial Assistance

If you need help with finances, we can provide various fund-raising and money management ideas. We can also offer financial assistance to those who are eligible. Contact Alvin (416-620-2946) for more information.

Transportation

We suggest that no students or young people under the age of 20 drive to this event. If you're interested in sharing transportation with local ministries, please contact Alvin (416-620-2946) after November 5.

* NEW * You can apply for a CBOQ grant to cover transportation expenses (i.e. the cost of a bus). The application deadline is October 15. Information about the grant application is available at <https://baptist.ca/churches/grant-funding/>.

Running Shoes

Because some of your students may be able to go onto the basketball court, all on-court participants must wear or bring running shoes (to change into) to the event. (Details about who those participants are will be emailed later.)

THE FINE PRINT:

Security: Why do we have security? For the safety and continued success of Centre Court events and Maple Leaf Sports and Entertainment (MLSE). Security protects you and your students from undo danger and protects the program at Centre Court and Scotiabank Arena.

The Centre Court executive team are youth ministry professionals. We understand how important it is for young people to have fun. It is our desire to maximize your fun, and protect the fun of others, by insisting on your adherence to the rules that we have established. They are not harsh, but for your safety and our continued relationship with MLSE we simply ask for your co-operation.

Youth Leaders: CBOQ Youth cannot be responsible for your students and leaders at this event. Please note that you will be wholly responsible for the behaviour of your group, and that we reserve the right to send students and leaders home at any point if we deem it necessary to the continued success of Centre Court. Each primary group leader must be in full control of their students and leaders during the evening.

We are proud of our relationship with MLSE. To maintain our ongoing partnership with MLSE, negligent students and leaders will find their groups fined for negligent behaviour, particularly if vandalism or breakage is an issue. Full replacement and repair costs plus a fine of $100 will result.

A few things to keep in mind:

- No drugs, no alcohol, no weapons, or any other illegal substances or objects. Possession of anything illegal will result in expulsion from the event.
- No pets.
- Breakage must be reported immediately. Breakage as a result of vandalism will result in repair costs and a fine.
- Leaders are responsible for their group members at all times.

FAQs

Who can come?

This event is primarily geared towards junior high and high school-aged students (though other-aged young people are welcome). As such, we strongly recommend you limit the tickets to your students, their friends and your group leaders (this is not for a general church outing).

What will happen?

As a pre-evangelism event, the program following the game will be fast-paced with a testimony by a player (subject to availability) and a student. The main purpose of this event is to give your leaders a chance to connect with your students' friends and to allow them to feel safe and connected with your group. The primary ministry doesn't happen at the event; the primary ministry is between you and the students.

What if we ordered too many tickets?

If for some reason you still have tickets available, we suggest you encourage your students to invite more of their friends (rather than church members). Also, you can call or e-mail Alvin (416-620-2946 or alau@baptist.ca) to see if he can resell your tickets to another group.

CBOQ Youth cannot offer a refund.

Why do the tickets cost $49 this year?

MLSE uses dynamic pricing to set its ticket prices. For this particular game, we were able to secure tickets at a rate that is less expensive compared to general public sales. If you can obtain tickets on your own and would like to join the post-game program, your group can join for a nominal per person fee.
